Hi Mike, do you have contacts for the businesses listed below? I'd like to contact them for CCA membership and it would be great to have a warm lead vs. calling them cold. Thanks.

Hi Team - here are the week's news stories and new business announcements. Hope everyone has a great weekend.

New Business:

DCBID

Multiply - 200 S Hill St
Downtown's newest night club and event space

Coming soon:

Birds and Bees - 207 S Broadway
A new speakeasy will fill nearly 3,000 sq ft underneath the Broadway Media Center building (the home of Soylent)

Fashion District

CTRL Collective - 833 S Spring St
A new coworking space above Verve Coffee that advertises itself as "not just a shared workspace, but a curated experience from beginning to end."

Historic Core

Coming soon:

P.Y.T – 400 S Main St

The new plant-based idea from serial restaurateur and chef Josef Centeno (Baco, Bar Ama, Orsa & Winston) will share a roof with Ledlow, although they'll have different looks and separate entrances.

News:

Fashion District

New Leader at Fashion District BID

The organization's board of directors has named Rena Masten Leddy the permanent executive director.

Historic Core

The Food Stand Drug-Dealing Shutdown

The management of Fallas Paredes, the value-minded department store that sits on the northwest corner of Fifth and Broadway, have shut down the food stand within the store because it was a hotbed of drug sales.

Little Tokyo

Rumors: Little Tokyo Office Depot Prepping for Redevelopment in Downtown LA

A suburban-style strip mall in the middle of Little Tokyo may be redeveloped in the next couple of years according to numerous sources.

Industrial District

Five People Arrested in Connection with Spice Overdoses in Skid Row

Officers from the Gang and Narcotics Division arrested the alleged dealers for possession of synthetic cannabinoids for sale near Fifth Street and San Pedro Street around noon on Wednesday.

Across BIDs

Jay Luchs on Blue Bottle, DTLA Apple store rumors and celebrity retail

The Real Deal sat down with the Westside broker to talk about the latest tenant he signed on Robertson, the role of celebrity in L.A. retail and whether that much-rumored Apple store is truly coming Downtown.

Downtown Community Plan Draft Nearly Done

The Department of City Planning is approaching a milestone in its years-long effort to rewrite the city's sorely outdated zoning code. City Planning is hosting an open studio session on Oct. 3-8 (9 a.m.-9 p.m.) at the Bradbury Building to gather feedback from Downtown stakeholders (more information is at dtla2040.org).

Outside BIDs

A Hollywood Agency Opens an Art Space, but It Won't 'Function Like a Gallery'

Art lawyer Joshua Roth and his colleagues at United Talent Agency prepare to open a new gallery-like venue, U.T.A. Artist Space, in a former manufacturing building in Boyle Heights, although it will not hold regular exhibitions for the public.
